Saint George's Episcopal Church – Flushing, Queens

A Historic Church with a Modern Mission

Welcome to a Sacred Place of Diversity, History, and Hope

Founded in 1702, Saint George's Episcopal Church is one of New York's oldest and most beloved congregations. Located in the heart of Flushing, Queens, we are a spiritual home for a vibrant, multicultural community—welcoming people of all backgrounds and walks of life. Our church building, completed in 1854, is a stunning example of Gothic Revival architecture and a New York City Landmark, offering a sense of peace and beauty in the midst of a bustling city.

A Church for All People

At Saint George's, we embrace the global character of our neighborhood:

- English, Chinese (Mandarin), and Spanish Services
- Multicultural worship and music
- Inclusive and welcoming to all, regardless of background or belief

Whether you're new to the Christian faith or seeking a spiritual community, you'll find a place here.

Our Mission

We are called to:

- Welcome all people into a life of faith and fellowship
- Love God and Love others
- Celebrate the beauty of God's creation
- Foster justice, peace, and compassion in our city and beyond

Worship & Community

Weekly Services:

- English – Sunday 9:30 AM Thursday 10:00AM Morning Prayer
- Chinese – Sunday 11:00 AM Wednesday 10:00AM
- Spanish – Sunday 1:00 PM Friday 7:30PM Online Bible Study

“A House of Prayer for All People” – Isaiah 56:7

Come as you are. All are welcome at Saint George's.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Peace be with you!

We sincerely thank each of you for your generous contributions and support toward the church gas pipes leaks and boiler replacement project. Your generosity and love beautifully reflect your reverence for the Lord's house and the passion that flows from your faith. Every offering, every prayer, is a response to God's grace and a testimony of our unity as we walk with Him.

We are deeply aware that the renovation work before us is full of challenges — both financially and in terms of time. Yet we firmly believe that the Lord's grace is sufficient for us. Since He has made us aware of the needs of His temple, He will surely provide the strength and resources needed to fulfill His calling. As Scripture says, “Unless the Lord builds the house, the builders labor in vain” (Psalm 127:1). What we are doing today is not merely repairing an aging piping and boiler system but bearing witness to our steadfast faith and continuing the light of the Gospel.

How great a grace it is that we have the privilege to restore this 323-year-old church with our own hands! This is not only God's blessing upon our church, but also His trust in us — entrusting His house to our care, allowing us to leave a mark of faith for generations to come. Since the end of 2024, we have completed several renovation projects, and every step along the way bears witness to God's presence and faithfulness throughout more than three centuries of this church's history.

Let us, in the days ahead, continue to pray with one accord and support one another. No matter the size of the offering or the form of service, all are expressions of our gratitude to God. We believe that when the church once again shines in renewed beauty, it will be a moment when the glory of the Lord is revealed even more brightly among us.

May the grace and peace of the Lord be with you always.

May He remember every act of love, every labor done in His name.

Faithfully,

Rev. Lu Carrie Zhang

Gloria in Excelsis Deo

Collect of the Day

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

“O that my words were written down! O that they were inscribed in a book! O that with an iron pen and with lead they were engraved on a rock forever! For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at the last he will stand upon the earth; and after my skin has been thus destroyed, then in my flesh I shall see God, whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another.

Job 19:23-27a

Psalm: 17:1-9

1 Hear my plea of innocence, O Lord; give heed to my cry;
listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.

2 Let my vindication come forth from your presence;
let your eyes be fixed on justice.

3 Weigh my heart, summon me by night,
melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

3 I give no offense with my mouth as others do;
I have heeded the words of your lips.

4 My footsteps hold fast to the ways of your law;
in your paths my feet shall not stumble.

5 I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me;
incline your ear to me and hear my words.

6 Show me your marvelous loving-kindness,
O Savior of those who take refuge at your right hand from those who rise up against them.

7 Keep me as the apple of your eye;
hide me under the shadow of your wings,

8 From the wicked who assault me,
from my deadly enemies who surround me.

The Second Reading 2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-17

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you? But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter. Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

The Gospel Acclamation

The Holy Gospel :

Luke 20:27-38

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him and asked him a question, “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.” Jesus said to them, “Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.”
